

29th

Ranked in the QS Latin America & The Caribbean University Rankings 2026

-  The Instituto Politécnico Nacional (IPN) advanced two places compared to the previous edition.
-  Scores increased in five of the eight evaluated indicators
-  The International Research Network remains the strongest indicator for IPN, followed by Employer Reputation.
-  The 2026 edition features 492 higher education institutions across 26 locations in Latin America and the Caribbean, with 67 institutions based in Mexico.

View the results